LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Register.

Register to day.

Do not fail to Register.

All quiet in police circles yesterday.

A six hundred lbs. pig was slaughtered in town yesterday.

Not an item could we pick up at any of the public offices yesterday.

An Italian "harpist" has been added to our itinerant musical street force.

Only 27 persons had registered at the Mayor's office up to last evening.

Buffalo Tongue is one of the delicacies of Miller & Nelson's lunch counter.

Bagatelle and Chinese tenpins continue to attract pleasure seekers to Fraps' saloon.

There will be a meeting of Hook and Ladder Fire Company to night at Firemen's Hall. Members are requested to be prompt and early.

The number of subscriptions to the Daily News the past month largely exceed any previous month's business—and the cry is still they come.

One of our city billiard experts made a run of 165 points, on one of Miller & Nelson's carom tables last evening—the largest ever made in the city.

J. Y. Whitted, Esq., of Hillsboro, N. C., one of the largest tobacco manufacturers in the State, was registered at the Yarbrough yesterday.

We were in error in stating the name of the editor of the Christian Advocate as Rev. W. H. Bobbitt. It should have been Rev. J. B. Bobbitt.

The pocket book lost at Tucker Hall, was found on the street by a boy who read the advertisement in the News, and promptly returned it to its owner.

Our friends in the country will remember that the Job Department of the News is now complete in every particular, and all orders for work, promptly attended to.

Mr. Lowter, at Weikel's Merchant Tailoring establishment, drew the gold watch at Anderson's exhibition on Wednesday night. It was as represented, pure gold and good quality.

The raffle for the fine gold watch of Tom Harrison, will take place at Miller & Nelson's, to-morrow night at 10 o'clock, sharp. Parties holding chance tickets will be prompt at this hour.

The ladies of the Memorial Association are earnestly requested to meet at Mrs. L. B. Evans' residence this (Friday) afternoon at 4 o'clock, in order to make arrangements for holding a Festival, for the benefit of the Association.

We learn that Coroner Magnin has received a letter from Dr. Genth, of Philadelphia, to the effect that the brains and stomach of the late Dr. J. Brinton Smith would be analyzed on Wednesday last, if a bright day, and a report transmitted forthwith.

At the corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets, where the Barringer building is going up, the street and sidewalk is so blocked as to endanger the life and limbs of night travelers and pedestrians. We suggest that the city authorities have the gas at the corner lighted as a case of urgent necessity, while the building is going on.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—Greeley and Brown.—Judge Merrimon and other friends of the cause will speak in Lenoir County, at the following times and places:

Merry Oaks, Friday, November 2nd.
Dr. Buchanan's, Saturday November 2nd.

MULES!—Wm. T. Rogers, one of the most favorably known mule dealers that ever visited our market is in town with 40 head of fine Kentucky mules, and may be found at Dunn's stables. He has also three or four extra fast buggy horses, all of which will sell on favorable terms. Call early.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Hon. Josiah Turner, of the Sentinel, is still at Orange Court.

Judge Thomas Settle and Col. Thos. B. Long are registered at the National.

Capt. C. A. Nash, of the large grocery and commission house of Baxter, Nash & Co., Norfolk, spent several days in the city this week.

Col. Thomas M. Holt, of Haw River, President of the State Agricultural Society, was in the city yesterday at the Yarbrough House.

Johnston Jones, Esq., the good looking and talented young editor of the Charlotte Observer, visited our sanctum yesterday. He reports his journal and section as flourishing.

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS.—Our next door neighbor, W. C. Stronach, Grocer and Commission Merchant, has added to his spacious store room, a business office, or rather neatly enclosed the space formerly occupied by his desks. Capt. Ballard, who presides with an easy grace and becoming dignity over the business office, has already assumed the air of a Wall Street broker's clerk, thus adding much to the business-like appearance of the house.

VOL. I.

RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 1, 1872.

NO. 179.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF CITY COMMISSIONERS.—On Wednesday evening last the Board of City Commissioners held their regular monthly meeting. Mayor Whitaker presided, and Messrs. Gorman, Stronach, Upchurch, Johnson, Prairie, Ellison, Col., and Dunston, Col., Commissioners, were present.

The report of the five free holders, appointed to assess damages resulting from the opening of Swain street was submitted and read.

On motion of Mr. Prairie, the report was recommitted to the committee in order that the report might be made to include all property holders living along the line of the street, and also to set out the advantages accruing.

Ellison, Col., offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the City Attorney be authorized to consent to a "lease agreed" for the purpose of bringing before the Supreme Court the question as to whether the city levy on credits, bonds, &c., is legal, and be instructed to appear for the city in said court.

The petition of S. F. Phillips was read and referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. Prairie, Stronach and Gorman, and the said committee were instructed to inform themselves as to the feasibility of widening the northern portion of Wilmington street.

On motion the City Treasurer was authorized to renew the insurance upon Metropolitan Hall.

On motion of Ellison, colored, the resolution which passed at last meeting, the resolution of the ordinance in relation to hucksters, was so amended as to give them permission to commence purchasing at 9 a. m., instead of 11 a. m.

On motion of Dunston, colored, it was ordered that property owners on the south side of Cabarrus street, from Aske's corner to Merrill's corner, be notified to fix their sidewalks with gravel.

The petition for a well in the Western Ward, at the corner of Lenoir and South streets, was referred to the Commissioners of this Ward for their report.

Several licenses for restaurants, and the retail of liquor were granted.

The Committee appointed to confer with the authorities of the R. & G. R.R. in regard to Johnston street, reported that the Railroad Company had agreed to make the necessary crossings within thirty days.

Claims against the city, to the amount of $3,118.14, (monthly expenses) were ordered to be audited and paid.

On motion of Mr. Prairie, the Mayor was requested to instruct the police to enforce Sections 9 and 18, Chapter 2, of the City Ordinance. The sections referred to read as follows:

9. If any person shall feed any horse, mule or other animal on any street except in the vicinity of the railroad depots, or shall hitch either of said animals to any shade tree in the city, or to any post within four feet of the footway, he shall forfeit five dollars for every offence, with the cost of the warrant.

18. No wagon, cart, carriage, buggy or other vehicle shall be permitted to stand in any street when not in use by the owner, under a penalty of four dollars for each offence, and the City Commissioners are hereby directed to be strict in the enforcement of this section.

On motion, the Board then adjourned.

ACCIDENT TO "CAPTAIN" SETTLE.—On Monday morning last as Judge R. P. Dick, Judge Settle, and Col. R. M. Douglas, were returning to Statesville from the residence of Mr. Hayne Davis, who lives about two miles from there, the carriage in passing over a mound in the road became uncoupled. The horses pulled the foremost wheels from under the carriage, which threw the hindmost part straight in the air. The horses were moving at a very fast gate, and Judge Settle was thrown with severe force against the front part of the vehicle. He received a severe blow on the head, and but that his hat covered that part of his head, a deep wound, and probably a serious gash would have been made. Judge Dick, Col. Douglas and the driver received no injuries. The lesson: Do not drive fast over bad places.—Exchange.

We rejoice that the "Captain" escaped so well. We rather like him, tho' he did not do all a good Confederate could have desired during the late "unpleasantness"—far from it. And his course since has not commended him much to old friends and the true people of N. C. Nevertheless we are glad he escaped so well! He is good looking, and his beauty came near being spoiled for life. He prides himself on this. Besides, he may be Governor of North Carolina some day, and we but express the common sentiment of our friends when we say that if we are to have a "Rad" for Governor of this good old State, (which God forbid!) Tom Settle is our choice. He looks like a Governor ought, and besides, he would live in the "Palace," as in the old time, and entertain his constituents like a Governor, on the large salary now paid him from the taxes of the people.

WAKE COUNTY CANVASS.—Messrs. G. V. Strong and F. H. Busbee addressed a large and enthusiastic audience at Auburn, in this county, on Tuesday last. Mr. Strong led off in one of his finest stump efforts and was followed by Mr. Busbee in a brief though telling appeal.

The Liberals and Conservatives of old Wake will be on hand at the polls next Tuesday it is to be hoped, and do their duty.

MR. LONDON'S APPOINTMENTS.—H. A. London, Jr., Greeley and Brown Elector for this District will speak at the following times and places:

Elevation, Johnston County, November 1st.

Clayton, Johnston County, November 2nd.

Lockville, Chatham County, November 4th.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The Stone Wall Fertilizer, said to be equal to any in use for wheat, is advertised by M. A. Parker in to-day's issue.

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY. There was a meeting of the Executive Committee held yesterday in the parlor of the Yarbrough House at 11 o'clock, and another at 7 o'clock, and from the enthusiasm we see Mr. Holt, the President, means work. In the selection of an Executive Committee, he proves himself an officer of superior merit, and a good judge of human nature. And now if the citizens of Raleigh will give him the necessary support, we will have our Fairs what they always should have been, a grand success and credit to the State, and we feel sure that the citizens of Raleigh—always noted for their enterprise and liberality—will rally to the rescue and never let us again hear the slurs cast at Raleigh and the State Fairs. We cannot now falter, when we know so well our pride and interest are both at stake. So let us all put our shoulders to the wheel and never stop pushing until we equal Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania. Why not?

The officers of the Society for the ensuing year are as follows:

President—Thos. M. Holt, of Alamance.

Permanent Vice-Presidents—R. H. Smith, Halifax; J. G. Dancy, Edgecombe; and K. P. Battle, Wake. These gentlemen were made permanent officers, by reason of the fact that they have filled the office of President of the Society.

Vice Presidents at Large—Tod R. Caldwell, Burke; D. M. Barringer, Wake; Dr. P. R. Hines, Craven, and J. W. Norwood, of Orange.

1st Congressional District—W. A. Blount, Beaufort; W. R. Capeheart, Chowan.

W. H. Jones, Treasurer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

John G. Williams, Chairman.

Gen. R. F. Hoke, Capt. A. B. Andrews, Wm. J. Hicks, Maj. Wm. A. Blount, W. C. Stronach, Jordan Stone, Col. J. M. Heck, W. H. Green, H. Mahler, Prof. Kerr, H. A. London, W. F. Aske, Dr. G. W. Blackall, Col. J. J. Young, W. C. Upchurch, T. Lee, A. Creech, P. H. Mangum, Col. Paul Faison, N. S. Hart, W. J. Hawkins.

For the want of space we are compelled to withhold the Advisory Committee, who will act in concert with the Executive Committee.

Taking all in all, the prospects are brilliant for a tremendous Fair next October.

DEATH OF G. A. SYKES, OF THE PETERSBURG INDEX.—The Index of yesterday comes to us clad in mourning on account of the death of G. A. Sykes, Esq., one of its proprietors, which sad event occurred in that city on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Sykes was one of the founders of the Index, and to him, more than any other one man is the great success of that journal attributable. He was well and favorably known to most of our citizens as the Associate of the lamented Jno. W. Syme, on the old Raleigh Register, the leading paper of its day in the State. In the death of Mr. Sykes, Petersburg loses one of its most valuable citizens, and the press and craft one of its brightest ornaments.

Prempt, of this city, for the position of Assistant Doorkeeper of the Senate. If elected, I feel no hesitation in saying that Mr. Prempt will make an efficient and faithful officer.

DEMOCRAT.

COL. HAM. C. JONES.—From the Charlotte Observer, we learn that the report that this distinguished son of Old Mecklenburg, had endorsed the straight out ticket, is infamously false, and Col. Jones stands now where he always stood in favor of Greeley and reform. Col. Jones is working actively in the canvass, and will address a Greeley and Brown meeting at Charlotte on Monday next.

The Crowning Success of the R. and T. R. A. S.

[Special to the Raleigh Daily News.

WELDON, N. C., Oct. 31.

The attendance on the Fair Grounds to day was variously estimated at from seven to nine thousand. Many more entries were made to-day, footing up in the aggregate a better exhibition in point of variety and excellence than has heretofore been shown. Good order prevailed. This is the crowning effort of the Roanoke and Tar River Society. To-morrow the Tournament, with an interesting programme, will draw probably a still larger crowd. The friends of the Society are jubilant over the success of the third Fair.

The Horse Malady.

WASHINGTON, October 31.

Two of this morning's papers relate the result of the inquiries at the Railroad, express and livery stables, and the conclusion reached is, that forty or fifty horses have symptoms of the equine epidemic; while another morning paper, the reporter of which visited numerous stables, says, veterinary surgeons are not attending any horses in the city suffering from the disease, and furthermore, they did not believe there was a case in town. There are horses, not an unusual number, suffering with colds, not certainly unusual at this season, but many owners of and those who have horses in care, express fears that their animals will be attacked by the disease, and are taking precautions accordingly.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.

All horse cars were stopped early to-night.

In Cleveland the disease is spreading. Several livery stables were closed, and the fire department and express companies' horses are becoming unfitted for service.

There is little change reported in Boston, but the disease has extended to Waterville and Eastport, Me.

In Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and other places on the Hudson River, the disease is increasing.

The Great San Francisco Races.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.

The race between Lucy and Occident at Treat's Park Course, Alameda, this afternoon, attracted ten thousand persons. The track was not in a good condition, a portion was wet and heavy. The horses were in good trim and excellent spirits.

The race was for a purse of $7,500, best three in five to harness. Pools at noon sold, Lucy sixty, Occident fifteen dollars, and the time pools, two twenty-one, at forty dollars, and two nineteen and two twenty, at seventeen dollars.

Large amount of money was pending on the race, principally on time pools.

In the first heat Occident drew the pole. A good start was then made in the second scoring the horses then started evenly to the quarter pole when Occident broke up, and lost badly at the reaching of the half mile. The horse then gathered up, and closed with in two lengths when Lucy passed the score time two twenty five and a half.

In the second heat a fine start was made after considerable scoring. Occident commenced breaking soon after they got off, and the chance of the heat was lost in passing the first quarter. Lucy continued to gain to the end, and gassed the score, leaving Occident distanced with thirty feet. Additional time 2:20. Considering the track Lucy's time created surprise.

Great disappointment is manifested at the result, and the people have lost confidence in the California horse.

A RADICAL SOLICITOR TRYING TO INDICT A DEMOCRATIC PAPER FOR LIBEL.

THE JURY RETURN 'NOT A TRUE BILL.'

THE JUDGES SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS.

He Charges Them to find a true Bill.

WILMINGTON, Oct. 31.

On last Saturday the Grand Jury for the Superior Court of this county, now in session, threw out a bill of indictment for libel against the Wilmington Journal, a daily Democratic newspaper of this city. Monday the Solicitor, a Republican, informed the Judge, also a Republican, that he wished to send a new bill, and asked him to send for the jury, and to instruct them specially in relation to the law of libel. He also informed the Judge that the parties against whom he wished to proceed, were editors of the Wilmington Journal. The jury was brought into Court and the Judge charged that the matter set forth in the indictment then exhibited in Court, constituted libel, and that if a true bill were found, the jurors would commit perjury. The alleged libelous matter is as follows:

"The difference, according to Radical ideas of right and wrong, and of justice, it is all right to turn Northern convicts out of the Penitentiary, although they are grown men and notorious thieves, found guilty by a jury after a fair trial, but it is all wrong to turn young Southern boys, tender in age, who, by promise of mild treatment, were induced to plead guilty before sundre like a Judge without any trial at all. It is all right in Radical eyes to pardon the Pennsylvania thief, but it would be all wrong to pardon the North Carolina Ku Kluxer called. The grown man Yerkes goes free. The young boy Ramsey is in a felons cell. Can North Carolinians reconcile it to their minds or to their conscience to vote for Grant. If Grant is beaten radicalism will die. It Grant is re-elected radicalism will live."

Yesterday afternoon the jury again came into court, and were lectured by the Judge in a manner that he was considered highly insulted for having taken no action on the bill up to the present time. The jury have not found the bill. The affair has created considerable excitement in the city, and much indignation is expressed at what is regarded by many as an effort to stifle the freedom of the press.

Further Particulars of the Burning of the Steamer Missouri.

KEY WEST, Oct. 31st.

When the boat, loaded with survivors, left the burning ship, one boat was seen with her keel upward, with two men clinging to the keel. The boat with the survivors lay by two hours to save the boat in distress. It is not likely that any more persons escaped. No sail had been seen for two days.

Forty minutes after the rescued boat left the ship the survivors saw passengers and crew left on the vessel crowded afire.

The passengers were breakfasting when the alarm of fire was first given. The boat of survivors was rescued by the Schooner Spy. A schooner which went towards the burning ship, returned and reported that it had seen nothing of any boats or passengers.

The sea was breaking heavily in the reefs. Seven females and seven children were aboard—none of whom got into the boats.

Shameful Conduct of United States Key West, Fla., Oct. 31.

The only expense incurred in this port by the little English steamer Anna, belonging to the Atlantic Mail Steamship Company, which brought to this port the survivors of the ill-fated steamer Missouri, from Nassau, was forced upon her by United States Custom officers, who even charged her with tonnage dues for twelve months in advance; every one else with whom Anna had business, worked willingly and gratuitously.

Lib. Rep. Ex. Com.

Raleigh, Sept. 26, 1872.

INTIMIDATION OF COLORED VOTERS.

"We learn that the colored Greeley

"Electors came near being mobbed at "Battleboro a few days since. The time

"is coming when this game will play

"out, and we tell the colored people

"plainly that such will not be tolerated

"much longer. This is a free country

"and all have a right to speak and vote

"as they please."—Rocky Mount Mail.

We do not know what colored Greeley

Electors are referred to by the Rocky

Mount Mail, but we presume Saunders and Hatton, two colored speakers, who have been canvassing Nash and Edge combe are the parties who were assailed.

We published on Tuesday an account of the outrage committed on Harry Dancy, a colored Conservative, by a white Radical named Davis, who had quarrelled with Dancy previously at a political meeting; Davis selected what he considered a favorable opportunity of wreaking his vengeance by a dastardly personal assault on Dancy a few days since at Battleboro, when he thought he had the advantage—being surrounded by a crowd of his sabbatical followers.

This attempt to do violence to an honest and well-behaved colored Democrat because of his political sentiments, we denounce in strong and emphatic language, and characterized it as a species of a system of intimidation resorted to by the Radicals to browbeat and terrorize colored men who had the manliness and courage to express their political sentiments, regardless of personal consequences.

We believe that large numbers of colored men would vote with our party if they were not placed under a mortal dread of punishment in some form or other by members of their own race who are incited to deeds of outrage and intimidation by disreputable white men who are seeking office, and who nearly evenly balanced between the Conservative and Radical parties, and there have been witnessed no scenes of violence "on account of race, color or previous condition." The consequence is no bad blood has been produced, and no disgraceful outrages committed until this campaign. The infamous conduct of Davis in wantonly assaulting Dancy has created a bitter feeling between the two parties in Nash, which may lead to deplorable consequences.

We trust that our political friends in that County will act with prudence and discretion for the sake of the color.

They should however, maintain their rights firmly and unflinchingly. Nothing should be done rashly and precipi-tately—nothing should be done contrary to the spirit or letter of the law; but everything should be done that duty, and right and justice demand.

We believe the time is coming, but it has not yet come, when the scales will fall from the eyes of deluded colored men, and then they will justly despise

the infamous white men who now fawn upon and flatter them for their votes,

but who care nothing for their true interests and welfare.

HOW TO LOSE THE STATE.

We yesterday informed our readers

how North Carolina could be carried for Greeley and Brown next Tuesday.

To day we propose to show them

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

The election of three Liberals to Congress is hoped for in Michigan.

Another German paper—the Troy

Volksfreund—has hoisted the names of Greeley and Brown.

Morton brags of having used upward of one hundred thousand dollars corruption money in Indiana.

Republican papers in Indiana pay Mr.

Kerr the compliment to regret his defeat, and to say that the State never had a better Representative.

A strong force of German speakers are at work in Illinois, and great hopes are entertained of carrying that State, particularly since the gratifying result in Indiana.

Illinois papers state that the probability that the Liberals will carry the Legislature is good. This would insure the return of Mr. Trumbull to the United States Senate as his own successor.

Out of the seventy-four political newspapers in New York, sixty-four support Greeley, and ten are for Grant.

It looks as though the reading men lack loyalty to Ulisses, and the loyal men don't seem to read.

The Secors, whose $87,000 claim paid by Secretary Robeson without sanction of law and in defiance of all official precedent, have contributed $20,000 in money to Chandler's corruption fund.

They must expect to make another haul, or they would hardly invest so liberally.

The Radicals of Maryland are making a desperate effort to beat the Hon. J. H.

Ritchie, of the Sixth District, for Congress, and for that purpose are pouring money into the canvass freely, and hoping to slip in their men by "ways that are dark." But if the Democrats come out their machinations will be easily defeated.

The Administration papers are crowing in advance over their presumed increased majority in the next House of Representatives. The St. Louis Republican, on the other hand, gives as the results of its calculations the probable complexion of the next House as follows: 158 Liberals and Democrats, 134

Grantites.

The Administration Ring in Detroit boast their ability to colonize three thousand colored in Detroit, and the Press is exercised at the prospect of their making it good. It is time the State laws should adopt such provisions and penalties for this offence, which has now become the gangrene of American politics, as will put a summary to stop it.

Edwin F. Gary, late State Auditor, discloses in a published card another plot to rob the already impoverished people of South Carolina by the Governor thereof. He says that twenty thousand dollars were offered him to levy a tax, which the Governor admitted him was to be appropriated for other purposes than those for which it was to be levied.

The coalition between the Administration and the O'Brien bogus "Democracy" has utterly failed, which makes the State of New York safe by a large majority for Greeley and Brown, if there was any uncertainty about it before. Murphy, who has played the part of king maker in the recently arranged political programme, will now take a back seat.

Troops have been moved into the Fourth Congressional District of Alabama, under the plea of sustaining

Federal authorities in the execution of the enforcement act. Several car loads of soldiers passed over the Tennessee line a few days since. This alleged fact has been denied, but has now been verified from official source. Grant is look-

A CORPSE GETS OUT OF THE COFFIN AND SPEAKS TO THE WATCHERS.

A few days since a young lady of Urbana, Ohio, who had been ill a short time, died, and the body was prepared for interment and placed in a coffin.

The night before the day of the funeral a number of young ladies watchers were seated in a room adjoining that in which the coffin had been placed, when, greatly to their consternation, the figure of the dead girl appeared before them and spoke faintly. When the horrified attendants had somewhat overcome their fright, seeing that the supposed corpse was really a thing of life, they took measures to care for their friend so startlingly restored to them almost from the very grave, and she received proper attention, and is now likely to recover.

THE LATEST FROM DR. LIVINGSTONE.

Mr. Stanley has recently received a letter from Jno. E. Webb, United States

him that he has received a letter from Dr. Livingstone, dated July 23, 1872, at Layambie. Dr. Livingstone does not communicate his intentions, but expresses the highest gratitude to Mr.

Stanley for his efforts to aid him, and compliments his indomitable pluck.

STATE MATTERS.

BENZINE was used quite freely in Wilmington Tuesday and Wednesday.

ELI HILL, sentenced to the Work House in Wilmington, has made his escape.

The Roanoke News says that O'Hara, the noted English Radical nigger, has taken out license to practice law.

A DEFORMED white man by the name of John King, died at the city hospital in Wilmington, on Monday night.

The Grand Jury of New Hanover have not yet returned a true bill against Wilmington Journal and Judge Bond.

Mr. J. T. JOHNSTON has sent the editor of the Charlotte Democrat two sweet potatoes weighing about five pounds each.

In consequence of a failure to secure hospital facilities, the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Wilmington, have concluded to postpone the course of winter lectures heretofore advertised—as we learn from the Star.

The Roanoke News says the utmost order prevailed on the Fair grounds Wednesday. No gambling, no tricks and no mock auctions, as has heretofore been the case. The prohibiting of all such on the grounds was a good move by the committee.

The Hickory Tavern Eagle says Bill Robbins, who was a member of John A. Murrell's clan, and upon whose testimony the notorious Haney, was convicted of highway robbery in Rutherford county, still lives in Iredell county, was in Statesville last week attending the Federal Court.

Not Excitedly, But Calmly.

We appeal to North Carolinians to turn out and work for the cause of Honesty and Reform, Peace and Reconciliation, Truth and Right, Justice and Liberty.

Let us not delay, but improve each shining hour, until next Tuesday's sun goes down in Asteroid glory on a field of victory for Greeley and Brown, the country's saviors.

Friends! there is not a moment to lose. Go to work upon every doubtful man, bring out the careless and indifferent, have all your relatives, neighbors and friends to register and vote. This is the only way to succeed. In this way only can Greeley and Brown be elected. In this way only are the liberties, peace and honor of the nation secure.

A Genuine Sampson Ku Klux.

Several months since a certain U. S. Marshal or Deputy U. S. Marshal, was travelling through Sampson county looking after so-called Ku Klux. To prevent exciting suspicion as to his real motives, he travelled in the disguise of a tobacco wagoner, and in the course of his perambulations he came across a man by the name of Zach. Royal, who, upon being plied with a quantum sufficient of "red-eye," provided by the astute official for such cases, became quite communicative. The tobacco wagoner alias U. S. Marshal pretended to sympathize with the persecuted Ku Klux, and finally Royal not only confessed that he was one of the persecuted fraternity, but that he was the man that killed Minis Herring, the colored man who, it will be remembered, was shot and killed a year or two ago, which was the occasion of the arrest of several citizens of Sampson, charged with implication in the said assassination or murder. Royal also intimated that he was fearful of being arrested for the murder, when the disguised official offered to assist him in keeping clear of the fangs of the law by taking him with him. Royal thereupon accompanied him to Raleigh and upon his arrival there he was committed to jail. He remained in confinement but a short time, however, before he was released upon the ground of his having turned State's evidence and implicating a large number of members of, or sympathizers with, the so-called Ku Klux organization. Upon his pretended revelations warrants were issued for the arrest of a number of prominent citizens of Sampson and for a time considerable excitement existed in the county, which finally subsided, until within the last week or two, on the eve of the approaching Presidential election, when the work of persecution again commenced and a number of the citizens of the county have been torn from their homes and carried to Raleigh, probably at the instigation of this same man Royal. Since the release of Royal from prison he has remained about Raleigh, but finally, for what cause is not known, he conceived the idea of returning to Sampson county. He made his appearance in Clinton on Saturday last, when he was immediately seized by the authorities, as we learn, and lodged in jail on the charge, which he himself confessed, of having murdered Minis Herring.—Wm. Fatal Accident—Killed by a Fall from a Bridge.

On Sunday night, about 7 1/2 o'clock a fatal accident occurred at the transfer bridge across Blackwater creek, resulting in the death of Mr. George C. Brown, of Danville.

It appears that Mr. Brown was stopping at the Orange House, and after supper had walked on the bridge, and it is supposed was sitting on the rail of the bridge, when, from some cause, he fell between the wagon and the transfer bridges to the creek below. The fall was a fatal one. Some persons near by heard the splash, and supposing that some had fallen procured a light and made search, when the body of Mr. Brown was found almost covered by water. On examination it was ascertained that he was quite dead. The body and neck both being broken. The body was removed to the Orange House and properly cared for, and yesterday morning was despatched to Danville, the friends of the deceased being telegraphed.

Mr. Brown was, we believe, a lawyer, and had a good deal of business to do as assignee in bankruptcy. He had been the day before to Campbell Court-house to attend to the sale of some property. It is said that he was subject to fits, and it is probable that his fall may have resulted from that cause.—Lynchburg Virginian.

Froude.

We have already noted the advent of this noted English historian, and commented on his first lecture. Now we notice he has roused the wrath of Father Tom Burke; and that eloquent divine has put his lance in rest and ridden a doughty tilt against the English champion. Upon the merits of the controversy—which we print elsewhere—the Savannah Republican thus comments:

The English and Irish Knight Errants, Mr. Froude and Father Tom Burke, have taken a tilt with sharpened lances in the open lists at New York, and each has done his knightly devoir for his native land. Both are cunning of fence—both eloquent and learned, and both enthusiasts—so that a tilt between two such champions is indeed a sight to see. Each comes gallantly up to the lists—Mr. Froude, the challenger, Father Burke on the defensive, but hitting hard blows black with his clerical crozier, the stalwart Englishman armed both with sword and spear. Both are hard hitters—dead in earnest—so that the fight promises to be a fierce one, should it continue, and Froude provoked to more retorts. It is a most ingenious idea for England to send over an advocate to plead its cause against Ireland's complaints, and pay him liberally for doing so—out of American pockets! for Froude gets paid for his patriotism by his Yankee audience.

There really is much of Yankee "smartness" in this; and it proves that our British brethren are not above taking useful hints in greenback gathering from Brother Jonathan, at whose morals and manners they turn up their aristocratic and contemptuous noses—often deservedly, we must say.

Father Burke, on the contrary, fights for faith and country gallantly and gratuitously. The conflict is a very interesting and instructive one, and we trust it will go on. We give on our outside page a synopsis of Mr. Froude's assault, and another of Father Burke's parry and return in terse.

In the same paper we find the poem we give to-day; and apropos to Mr. Froude's use of the phrase, "Blood is thicker than water," the Washington Patriot pointedly says:

In the speech which Mr. Froude, the eminent historian, made at the dinner given to him in New York by his publishers, there occurred a singularly inappropriate allusion for one who so scrupulously tried, as Mr. Froude evidently did, to avoid all reference to our civil disagreements. His opening paragraph referred to the memorable mot of Commodore Tattall, when he dashed his ships into the fire of the Peiho forts in China and brought off the crippled and suffering English boats, exclaiming, "Blood is thicker than water." Mr. Froude was evidently unconscious that Commodore Tattall's gallantry had been quite forgotten in the bitter remembrance that he was an officer of the hostile Confederacy, and that Mr. Froude seems also to have been unaware that he was addressing a collection of gentlemen the majority of whom had long been, and were then, particularly and especially occupied in arguing against and refuting the doctrine that "blood is thicker than water," and in opposing to it the more acceptably Puritanic doctrine that "hate is righteous," and should long prevail.

The chairman himself, of the dinner at which Mr. Froude was speaking, even while claiming that the scholar should practice Sir Philip Sidney's noble maxim, that knowledge was of no use, but as it afforded us practical principles, which we could so apply "that public advantage may be the result," was all the same exclaiming all the powers of his intellect and culture in bringing to bear all the diabolical machinery of the powerful press he controlled, in order to perpetuate strife and crystallize that "policy of hate," from which the country has already suffered so much. The condition of Ireland, which Mr. Froude deprecated so powerfully, was the very condition to which Mr. Curtis and his colleagues were striving to reduce that unhappy South, which had given the brave Tattall to the country and to the world's fervent admiration.

The oppressive laws, the invidious distinctions, the class rule, the raids and outrages, which Mr. Froude admitted had made Ireland for hundreds of years the chronic model of the British State, and his party had erected their system of reconstruction for the South, and to perpetuate which they were now so urgently pressing General Grant's reelection. In fact, never was a speech less suited to an audience than Mr. Froude's to the guests at Scribner's dinner, and his random and happy shots, so unconsciously and earnestly given, must have made ears burn, to the right and to the left of him, with unwonted tingling.

Minister Washburne and the Germans.

Representatives of two German-American Associations in New York Monday, presented Hon. Elihu D. Washburne an address, expressive of the gratified recognition of his kindness towards the German residents of Paris during the horrors of the siege, in not only carrying out the liberal instructions of his government, but the involuntary sacrifice of his own personal comforts, giving cheerfully from his own stores to needy, starving Germans. Minister Washburne in reply, says that the credit of his acts is due to the administration of President Grant, under whose specific direction he complied with the request of the German government to assume the protection of the Germans in France. He felt that he correctly interpreted the feelings of the government and people of the United States when he followed the inclination of his own heart in doing what he did. If he was able to send 30,000 Germans out of the city before the gates of the city were finally closed, it was because of the unbounded liberality of the German government, which the French furnished him every support.

If he was able during the last terrible of the siege to secure the protection and furnish means of support to 3,000 Germans, who flocked to our legation, it was because the Government of National Defence caused his position to be respected; and if he was able after the siege to continue that protection, it was because he had the support of the French Republic, who at the head of man, M. Thiers, who at the head of the government, "nothing could better exemplify the power of our country and the respect shown our flag than the Commune of Paris, in its career of crime and blood, released on my demand, more than a hundred Germans, who had been thrown into prison, guiltless of any crime, and subjected to frightful persecutions."

A Sad Scene in a Theatre.

Last evening, while the audience was deeply interested in the play at the theatre, a young child was observed walking down the aisle with quick and anxious step. Her face and eyes betokened weeping, and even yet the unwept tears were trickling down her pale cheeks. The little one, after glancing hurriedly and anxiously down the aisle, darted forward toward a young woman sitting near the stage, and, bending over behind her, faltered out, between her sobs, "oh dear! oh dear! Father's—dead!" The young woman, startled by the sudden intelligence, exclaimed: "Oh, my God—my poor father!" and hastily arose, and with the mournful and mourning messenger left the gay place of pleasure for the darkened chamber of death. The scene was noticed by a number, and for a little time afterwards there was not a murmur of applause nor a sign of a smile on the audience. As the play progressed the depression passed away, and soon the sad scene of real life was forgotten in the painted representation with the feigning characters on the stage.—Troy, N. Y., Press Oct. 22.

ENTERPRISING WIDOWS.—It is stated that at Society Hill, South Carolina, after the war, three widow ladies, who were in great want, sent to some Charleston merchants an inquiry whether they could obtain glass jars and sugar on a credit for the purpose of making preserves, to see if they could make any money out of the business. The credit was given, the preserves made, shipped to New York city and sold. They found the business profitable. At the present time forty families are supported at Society Hill by this industry alone, commenced by three enterprising widows.

FLOOD TIDE.

The fisher's wife looked from her door,
Across the shining sand,
Her eyes against the level light
Were shaded by her hand.
She heard, like winds 'mid summer leaves,
The bright waves lap the strand.

Undriven came the lowing cows
Along the winding way,
Her good man's boot against the wind
Was taking up the bay;
She saw him stand, with rope in hand,
And cast the shawl away.

What was it on the lengthening shore
Her strained eyes sought in vain?
She stooped to turn the drying nets,
Then rose and gazed again
"He waits behind the rock," she smiled,
"To greet his fatherlain."

Yet while she spoke, his boat to land Alone the fisher drew;
The breaking tide-wave, flashing crest
Cut while across the blue,
And a brimless hat beside his feet
The mocking waters threw.
